CIVIC LEADERS TO SPEAK FOR CHIEF

Men prominent in commercial and civic affairs of Washington will appear at the public hearing to be granted Deputy Chief Sullivan Thursday morning.

The mode of procedure to be followed at the hearing has not been mapped out. In view of the fact the action of Commissioner Siddons was based on events of the American five and ten cent store fire, it is probable an ex-parte defense of Chief ullivan's actions at the fire will be entered.

There are no charges against Sullivan, and nothing to be refuted, except the implied accusation that he was responsible for five men of No. 3 engine company remaining undiscovered under fallen floors for a long-time. Charles W. Darr, who made the for-

Charles W. Darr, who made the formal application for a public hearing for Chief Sullivan, is preparing a program for orderly submission of statements at the hearing, but it is understood all who want to be heard will be given opportunity to speak. A list of those who wish to appear is being prepared. It is possible that a report of Commissioner Siddons' private inquiry will be made available. It is understood, nowever, that no formal request for it has been made.

ON ALLEY MEASURE

The District Commissioners will hold a public hearing on the fill for the elimination in ten years of the inhibitated blind alleys, in the District building, January 27. The primary object is to ascertain if there is objection to the measure, the views obtained by the board thus far having been nothing.
